Never since the memorable days of the battle has there assembled on this famous spot so notable and imposing a collection of veterans as, will gather there during this week, and no better opportunity for visiting the battle ground in the company of those who were susaged in the great fight will ever be offered.

For the benefit of those who dealers to be present the Peunsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Gettysburg from all stations on its lines east of Pittsburg and Erie, on June 20, July 1, 2, 3, and 4, good to return until the 8th, Inclusive, at one fare for the round trip.

Stonecutters' Lock Out Ended.

The differences between the stonecutters and their bosses were settled by arbitration yesterday. Mr. Joseph Fanning acted for the stonecutters, Mr. Vichmeyer for the bosses, and Mr. John T. Jennen as a disinterested party. The board adopted the following: 'The master stonecutters propose that the journeymen stonecutters work nine hours for a day's work, except on Saturday, when eight hours will be a day's work, from this date to the first day of November, 1980, and after that nine eight hours, at the rate of 40 cents per hour. The result of the arbitration satisfied the workmen, and the Jockout so far as they are congerned is ended. Stonecutters' Lock Out Ended.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL Expenses of the First Year Less Than

Anticipated, At a meeting of the directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company held on Tuesday the president submitted a finan-cial statement showing that during the past cial statement showing that during the past year, including all the expenses incident to the late floods, which included repeated breaks, the heaviest ever known on the canal, miles of towpathing completely washed away, the purchase of all kinds of materials, and the employment of over 800 extra hands, the expenses amounted only to $83,000. The expenses of the late flood were but $30,000, far below what was anticipated. The present year, it is stated, will demonstrate whether the canal can be accepted as a future competitor in the coalcarrying trade of Maryland.

To See the Baretta Conferred. Washington will be well represented at the ceremony of conferring the beretta on Cardinal Gibbons on the 30th lestant. Nearly all the secular clergy of the city will be in atthe secular cleray of the city will be in attendance, as well as delegates from the Jesuita, Dominicans, and other orders which have churches here. Hesides these a number of the members of Carroll Institute will go over, and it is expected that most of the Catholic religious and social organizations will send representatives. Rev. Dr. Chapelle, of St. Matthew's Church, will be as the head of the Washingtonians, and will, it is said, take a prominent part in the ceremony, as he is the cardinal's chief theological solvier. Tickets of admission to the enthedral are in great demand here, it will hold only between two and inrecthousand people, and as persons will be present from all paris of the country, of course no city can get as many if kets as are wanted. It is understood that each clerayman of the archdioeese has a certain number, and in every case the demand has been far begand the supply. A movement was started some time ago in this city to have the temperance and other cocioties attend in a body, but when it was discovered that into-tentils of them would have to remain out in the street during the ceremony the idea was quickly abandoned.

Senator Riddleberger yesterday introduced a bill to direct the District commissioners to place on the roll of those entitled to relief from the metropolitan police fund the name of George Fields, late a private of the police force, and pay to him a ponilon of $30 a month.

Senator Call presented a petition signed by a number of citizens, praying for the passage of the bill to appropriate money to pay John Pope Hodnett for services as counsel for the workingmen of the District.

Mr. Harbour yesterday introduced a resolution directing the committee on rules to report upon the propriety of allowing another day for District of Columbia business.

Senators Blackburn and Spooner, subcommittee of the District committee making the inquiry as to the cost of gas, met yesterday, in consequence of the sickness of President Mellhenny of the gas company the session was short, and nothing of importance transpired. District Matters in Congress.
